

PCT Healthcare – Job Description

1. Job Details

Job Title : Accredited Checking Technician

Responsible to : Pharmacist Manager or Pharmacist

2. Job Purpose

To carry out dispensing and checking duties under the authorisation of a qualified pharmacist and to supervise the work of other members of staff (where applicable).

3. Qualifications

NVQ3 Pharmacy Services or equivalent.

Accredited Checking Technician.

Registered with Royal Pharmaceutical Society of Great Britain or General Pharmaceutical Council.

4. Main Tasks

- To provide a courteous, confidential and professional service to all pharmacy customers.
- To ensure all prescriptions are dispensed accurately and in a timely manner.
- To check prescriptions previously clinically assessed by a pharmacist and when not involved in the dispensing process itself.
- To maintain a high standard of appearance of the pharmacy.
- To monitor stock levels and adapt orders appropriately.
- To carry out dispensary administrative tasks, where applicable.
- To supervise the work of others and delegate tasks and roles, as applicable.
- To adhere to Company Standard Operating Procedures and policies, Health and Safety regulations and legal and ethical requirements affecting pharmacy.

5. Specific Duties

Dispensary

- Check that receipt of prescriptions at the medicines counter has been correctly performed and verify stock availability on acceptance of prescription.
- Ensure the prescription is labelled, assembled and forwarded for checking, accurately and without undue delay, in accordance with all relevant Standard Operating Procedures.
- Check prescriptions previously clinically assessed by a pharmacist where there has been no involvement in the dispensing process prior to checking.
- Identify and resolve any anomalies or problems with prescriptions.
- Identify correctly the customer / patient to receive the medication dispensed and counsel them on the use of their prescribed items, where appropriate.
- Ensure all relevant documentation is completed, including register entries and accurate endorsement of the prescription.
- Dispense items into compliance aids or monitored dosage systems, when appropriate.

PCT Healthcare – Job Description

5. Specific Duties (continued)

- Co-ordinate the ordering, collection and delivery of repeat prescriptions, ensuring full records are maintained and patient consent has been given.
- Order both drugs and containers when required from the appropriate suppliers, maintaining adequate stock levels to keep owings to a minimum.
- Check the expiry date and computer stock levels of all dispensary items on a regular basis, verifying stock-rotation procedures are effective.
- NHS Smartcard – If you are an existing NHS Smartcard holder, you will be required to use it. If not, one will be provided to you

Branch operations

- Perform diagnostic tests or health check assessments (if trained so to do), including the recalibration and maintenance of the equipment used.
- Participate in PCT schemes, where applicable.
- Where authorised, complete all end of day / month paperwork in a timely manner. This may include preparing prescriptions for submission to the PPD, the branch report and PCT claim forms.
- Supervise and co-ordinate the work of other members of dispensary and/or pharmacy staff where applicable and authorised.
- Respond appropriately to customer needs, politely and efficiently, by asking appropriate questions, following the Standard Operating Procedures for Sale of Medicines and Supporting Self-care, recording advice on customers' patient medication records (PMR) when applicable and taking appropriate action if a product is not available.
- Refer customers on to other healthcare professionals, including the pharmacist, following the Standard Operating Procedure for Sign-Posting and recording details on their PMR, where appropriate.
- Advise on healthy lifestyles, giving accurate up-to-date information, following the Standard Operating Procedure for Promotion of Healthy Lifestyles, recording advice on the customer's PMR.
- Make sales in accordance with the Company security rules regarding the use of the till, checking bank notes and processing card transactions.
- Complete other sales duties in accordance with Pharmacy Assistant job description.
- Follow COSHH regulations at all times and be able to recognise and handle hazardous goods.
- Handle returned medicines, waste and rubbish appropriately, dealing with spillage and debris efficiently and appropriately.
- Carry out good housekeeping procedures regularly and effectively maintaining the appearance of the shop and other areas.

Personal Development

- Undergo additional training, where required, to become involved in PCT schemes.
- Undertake Continuing Professional Development to update knowledge.
- Maintain records of any incidents as part of re-accreditation process for ACT qualification.

6. General

The Company expects all employees to work to the best of their ability, showing enthusiasm, assisting fellow employees and endeavouring to maintain a high standard of work ethics and commitment.

All employees should have a good working knowledge of the Company's Standard Operating Procedures and policies (including Code of Conduct, Data Protection and Confidentiality, Health and Safety regulations), working practices and the legal and ethical requirements affecting pharmacy relevant to their role. These should be followed at all times.

All employees are expected to show interest in furthering knowledge and be willing to attend training courses as requested by management or the training officer.

PCT Healthcare – Job Description

6. General (continued)

All employees are expected to make every effort to maintain good teamwork, discussing difficulties and working relationships promptly with the Pharmacist Manager or Line Manager.

7. Review

This job description sets out the current duties of the Accuracy Checking Technician that may vary from time to time without changing the general character of the position or the level of responsibility entailed.